2004 Mahoney Vineyards “Las Brisas” Pinot Noir - 92 Points

Not only silky and fruity, but with all kinds of complexities, this is a great example of Carneros Pinot at its best. It's dry and crisp, with a myriad of cherry, raspberry, cola, vanilla, oaky char and Asian spice flavors all mingling into a complicated finish.

2004 Mahoney Vineyards “Mahoney Ranch” Pinot Noir - 92 Points

Just what you look for in Carneros Pinot, or any cool-climate Pinot: an elegant mouthfeel, silky texture and ripe fruit accented by toasty oak. In this case the fruit is raspberries and cherries, bright and pure through the finish. Defines elegance and complexity.

2003 Mahoney Vineyards “Carneros” Pinot Noir - 90 Points

Shows lots of elegant, cool-climate Pinot character in the silky texture, crisp acids and extremely ripe cherry, raspberry, root beer and Asian spice flavors that finish long. Delicious with grilled salmon or lamb chops.
